Burgundian style and biodynamic - good for the earth and good for you

Urban Oak Ribera del Duero, Tempranillo, '04, Spain

a roasty, toasty wine, deep and rich, from a toasty, roasty part of Spain

Briccotondo, Barbera '06, Italy

a "piccola" from Piemonte, the land of burly wine - a plummy, rich everyday red

La Garrigue, Cotes du Rhone '07, France

a black and white French film, no need for subtitles, just coffee, black fruit and jam

Poggio D'Elsa, Cabernet/Sangiovese '07, Italy

some say blend, others say marriage, we say yes to the ripe red fruit in this bottle of Tuscan sunshine

Rosenblum, Zinfandel '06, California

a California summer of jammy, black fruits

Dona Paula, Malbec '08, Argentina

a little gordita from South America, a black fruit tango of spice and yum
